This is your invitation to become a guest client.

Free short-term counselling

At GTB our students provide free short-term counselling to interested people as part of their education requirements. The sessions are generally conducted onsite at GTB premise in Brisbane.

Students will have varying degrees of skill levels and counselling experience depending on their year level. Sessions will be under the supervision of GTB's academic staff, either by being present during some sessions, or by viewing videotaped sessions.

Throughout each year our Year 2, 3 & 4 students work with guest clients. The day and time will be negotiated with the student.

Guest Couples session
